Welcome to Eastgate at MIT!

This booklet will highlight shopping, food guides, activities and essential tips for getting around town -- with or without a car.

We hope you find this a helpful resource and enjoy your time in the Cambridge/Boston area. This booklet is based on some resources we've been given from our church and both MIT and Harvard references. We took that, and cross-referenced to the Internet and added lots of advice we've received from former and present Eastgate residents. Some of these things we've stumbled upon on our own.

Enjoy!

Roadside Finds
One person’s junk is another person’s treasure. Entire apartments have been furnished by things left on the curb. Try the night before garbage day during key move-in/move-out seasons, particularly in the nice neighborhoods (they usually have nicer furniture).

Yard Sales
Particularly take a look in upscale areas (Belmont, Arlington, Beacon Hill, Back Bay) or in/around student housing towards the end of the school year and throughout the summer. Big sales are also sometimes listed in the Boston Globe.

(617) 367-3310
(Easy walk from Eastgate)

Boca Grande
1728 Mass Ave., Porter Sq.
Also found on 1st STREET near Cambridge Side Galleria
Amazing Mexican food in a fun, casual environment. Best burritos we’ve ever had and many more delicious entrees. Everything is freshly made while you wait. Great for groups and takeout. CASH ONLY.
Tip: There is a Boca Grande on First St., across the street from Cambridgeside Galleria, but the menu is much more limited than at Porter Sq., and it’s not as fun an environment. Mostly for business lunches.

Border Cafe
32 Church St., Harvard Sq.
(617) 864-6100
This restaurant is great for a “south-of-the-border meal. Very upbeat atmosphere. Get there early to avoid a wait.

Chili’s
Copley Square Mall

China Pearl
9 Tyler St., Chinatown
617-426-4338
A local favorite, great priced dim sum.

Indian Pavilion
Corner of River St. & Mass Ave., Central Sq.

 No Name Restaurant
Boston Fish Pier, Northern Ave., Boston
Get off on the South Station T, then get a taxi for $5 or less to this great place.
Great seafood, famous for its good service and low prices, much recommended. A Boston visit must. CASH ONLY.

Penang
57 JFK Street, Harvard Sq.
617-234-3988
Delicious Malaysian restaurant perched above Harvard Sq. Mango chicken and the curry appetizer are favorites.

 Pizzeria Regina
Found in Quincy Market food court
Also found in the North End best pizza in Boston

Pho Pasteur
35 Dunster St., Harvard Sq.
617-864-4100
Amazingly fresh Vietnamese food that won’t break your wallet. Very fast service, and kid-friendly too.

Quincy Market Foodcourt
Faneuil Hall, Government Center T Stop
Large variety from Clam Chowder and seafood entrees for large meal to yummy Gelato for a treat while walking the Freedom Trail.

 Red Bones
55 Chester St., Davis Sq.
617-628-2200
www.redbonesbbq.com
Great southern barbeque in a sit-down restaurant environment. Very casual and fun. Delicious pulled pork sandwiches, cornbread and much more. Large portions. CASH ONLY.

S&S Deli
1334 Cambridge St., Inman Sq.
Great place for Saturday brunch. Classic deli. Have high chairs, good for families. They are also pretty reasonably priced. Don’t recommend the hamburgers, but everything else is good.

Shalimar of India
546 Mass. Ave., Central Sq.
617-547-9280
Great Indian food.

Shawarma King
1383 Beacon St., near Coolidge Corner, Boston
617-731-6035
Great Lebanese food.

Stefani’s Pizza
783 Main St., near Central Sq.
617-491-7823
Good pizza, different than the national chains. Prices for one pizza are good. Delivery is fast and free (or maybe just $1) to Eastgate.

Thailand Cafe
302 Mass Ave., Central Sq.
617-492-2494
Great food, great price, as authentic as many, delivers to Eastgate.

Special Date Nights ($12-20/person)

Asian Garden
28 Harrison St., Chinatown
(617) 695-1646
Fish tanks in the basement entryway promise superb Hong Kong seafood. Friendly place, and a cut cheaper than the rest.

Black Sheep Restaurant
Kendall Hotel
350 Main Street, Cambridge
617-577-1300
Very classy place, close walk from Eastgate.

Great Chinese place
Don’t know the name, but it’s located in Harvard Square, along Holyoke Street and Mass Ave – right next to the T.

Chau Chow City
83 Essex St., Chinatown
617-338-8158
Boston Globe: “Three floors, noisy, crowded, and gaudy, this place has stolen the mantle from China Pearl as the dim sum palace.”

Cheesecake Factory
Cambridgeside Galleria
617-252-3810
Great appetizers (try the Thai Lettuce Wraps), entrees, and of course, cheesecake.

Dali Restaurant and Tapas Bar
415 Washington St., Somerville
Fabulous restaurant for appetizers or a meal’s worth of appetizers. Funky atmosphere. Come early on weekends to avoid lines.

Durgin Park
340 North Market St., Faneuil Hall
617-227-2038
Great New England feel, wait staff hired to act and dress as they did in the 1800s. Fun for the whole family, and the food has a “homemade feel.” Medium priced.

Elephant Walk
2067 Mass Ave., near Porter Sq.

Legal Seafoods
5 Cambridge Center, right next to MIT Coop
(617) 864-3400
Great restaurant to take your guests to who really have to have the New England seafood and delicious clam “chowda.” Their clam chowder has been served at the last 5 Presidential Inaugurations.

Mary Chung’s Chinese Restaurant
464 Mass. Ave., Central Sq.
(617) 864-1991
Excellent food, pot stickers are personal favorite. Take out available, no delivery, great ambiance
CASH ONLY.

Midwest Grill
1124 Cambridge St., Inman Square
617-354-7536
Brazilian Rodizian BBQ, lots of meat, very good, pricey ($19 for full all you can eat)

North End of Boston
Parking’s not great, best is to walk from the Haymarket T stop along the Freedom Trail
Any restaurant in the neighborhood is worth a try! Some recommendations: Mama Maria ($$$), Limoncello ($$$), Mother Anna’s($ - and very family friendly). Some are cash only.
Papa Razzi
Cambridgeside Galleria
617-577-0009
Good Italian food, authentic rich desserts
Worth The Splurge ($21+/person)

easy walk from Eastgate
This ice cream shop has been named Best in Boston for many years. The flavors are wild and delicious.
GETTING AROUND IN BOSTON

A few tips and tricks for finding your way around Boston, Cambridge, and beyond

MAPS -- Pick up a good map at any bookstore or gas station. ‘Streetwise Boston’ is a favorite of downtown Boston and handy to have if you are wandering the streets of downtown. A good road map will help you maneuver the poorly marked roads of Boston and Cambridge.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION - Boston’s public transportation system is operated by the MBTA (Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority). The MBTA runs subways, buses, harbor ferries and the commuter rail. Operation time is 5AM to 12:30AM. Many places can be reached easily with buses and subways.

Subway stations and bus stops are marked with a T sign. You can buy tokens (subway tickets) at every subway stop. T-passes are generally only sold four workdays before and four weekdays after the first of each month. Check with the MIT parking office about a discounted T-pass.

CABS - It is relatively easy to get a cab in Boston or Cambridge. Look for cab stations at Kendall Square or in front of the Marriott hotel. A cab ride from Eastgate to the airport will run you approximately $15. From Eastgate to downtown, approximately $7-10.

MIT SHUTTLE - A free MIT shuttle runs from Kendall Square about every 20 minutes and makes frequent stops throughout campus all the way to Westgate apartments, on the opposite end of campus. Check out the webpage for more information: web.mit.edu

ZIP CAR -- A ‘zip car’ is available for rent on an hourly or daily basis. Cars are located throughout Boston and Cambridge for pick up. One car is even located at Kendall Square! Cars can be rented by signing up for membership at www.zipcar.com. Ask about MIT student discounts. A great way to run a few errands or get out of town if you don’t want to own a car.

ONLINE RESOURCES --

www.mapquest.com -- A good website for getting driving directions. However, beware, Boston streets are so confusing, sometimes even Mapquest gets it wrong! Also, they don’t account for construction, which is prevalent around town. Consult a real map along with mapquest for best results.

www.boston.citysearch.com -- An excellent web site that gives you up to date information on events happening around town, restaurants, hotels, sightseeing and much more.
GETTING AROUND BOSTON WITHOUT A CAR

Highlighted T Stops and Points of Interest

We’ve listed whether or not each subway stop has escalators, elevators, or stairs only, to the best of our knowledge. Good to know when dealing with strollers, kids, or just tired feet.

Some tips:
1. Be brave: Public transportation is scary at first, but a great way to get around the town.
2. T is $1 each way for the most part.
3. Bus Fare is $0.75 each way.
4. Plan ahead, sometimes even if you have a car it makes more sense to take the T.
5. See mbta.com for schedules and other info.
6. An inexpensive, lightweight umbrella stroller is easy to carry into the subway and a good investment in this town.

ACTIVITIES

More than you could possibly do in a year (or five)

FREE & LOW-PRICED FUN

Boston Common -- the perfect place for picnics, walking, people watching, etc.
1. Shakespeare on the Common -- look for it around July.
2. Frog Pond - good for wading in the summer and ice skating in the winter (fee for skate rental, but rink usage is free)
3. Freedom Trail -- You don’t have to go very far to learn about American history. Stop by the information booth on the Boston Common (near Park St. T stop) and make your way along the red brick tail to visit such sites as Charlestown Navy Yard, U.S.S. Constitution, Faneuil Hall/Quincy Market, the Old North Church, Bunker Hill, etc. As locals, you have the luxury of breaking up the 3 mile self guided tour if you like. The National Park Service also leads a very informative guided tour for free.

Visit the ducks -- anywhere along the Charles or at the Pond in the Public Gardens

Hatch Shell - that big half-dome on the Boston Esplanade by the Charles River
Concerts - classical to rock, mostly free
Free Friday Flicks - every Friday night in the summer, a family friendly movie begins at dusk. Lots of fun, sometimes free

DAY TRIPS

IN AND AROUND BOSTON

Easy and Exciting Day Trips – Closer than You Think

Arlington-Bedford Bike Path - Paved Bike Path from Arlington to Bedford. This path is 11 miles one way. There are many different places to pick up the trail. If you want to go where it’s the prettiest, pick it up in Lexington. This is great for running, walking, and of course, rollerblading.

The Berkshires -- Two hours west of Boston, the rolling hills, beautiful mansions and lakes will take your breath away. Don’t miss the exceptional Norman Rockwell Museum. Visit the quaint towns of Lenox, Stockbridge and Lee. Tanglewood Music Center, the summer home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, offers great outdoor concerts for the whole family during July and August. In the fall, don’t miss the changing foliage. For shoppers, there is great outlet shopping in Lee and in Manchester, VT just north of Lee. The historic Red Lion Inn in Stockbridge is a great place to stay if you want to make a weekend out of it. www.berkshires.org

Boston Common/Quincy Market -- Venture downtown and ride the swan boats and feed the ducks in the Public Gardens at the Common or venture down to Quincy Market for some shopping and clam chowder at one of the many restaurants. It’s best to take the T to Park Street on the Red Line.

Burlington, VT - In northern Vermont, on the banks of Lake Champlain, Burlington is a bustling city with lots to do and see. Approximately a 3 hour drive from Boston, Burlington is home to Ben & Jerry’s ice cream company, Vermont Teddy Bear Factory, and borders Stowe Mountain Resort. Ben & Jerry’s offers a fun tour of their factory and of course offers samples of their delicious ice cream! The Teddy Bear Factory is fun for kids and also offers factory tours.

www.central-vt.com/web/benjerry/

Stowe is a beautiful mountain town and resort. Great skiing in the winter and beautiful scenic drives in the summer. It’s a great place to stay overnight if you want to make a weekend out of it. The Von Trapp Family, featured in the movie the Sound of Music, owned a home there that has been turned into a beautiful lodge with great accommodations year round.

www.trappfamilylodge.com

If you want to extend the trip over a weekend, take the ferry from Burlington across Lake Champlain to Lake Placid region.

Cape Cod -- 2 hours south of Boston is Cape Cod -- land of beautiful beaches, lighthouses, quaint towns, and scenic drives. The Cape is always fun and can be really inexpensive if you go in the off season. Our favorite towns are Chatham (great shopping) and Hyannis. A great day trip but if you want to make a weekend out of it, catch the ferry to Martha’s Vineyard or Nantucket from Hyannis.

www.capecod.com

Concord, MA -- A must see! Only a fifteen-mile drive from Cambridge. A quaint town with historic sites such as Walden Pond, the Alcott Home (Little Women author), the Old North Bridge, Emerson’s home, Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, etc.

www.frommers.com/destinations/concordma

Gloucester, MA -- America’s oldest seaport, Gloucester is located 30 miles northeast of Boston. The stunning, rugged beauty of Gloucester’s coastline, the long, sandy beaches and the clear blue Atlantic Ocean have attracted visitors ever since. An attractive downtown, museums and tours on land and sea all make it a great destination.

For a free brochure packet, call 1-800-649-6839 or check out their website, www.gloucesterma.com

Lexington, MA -- A fifteen mile drive from Cambridge, on the way to Concord. The location of the beginning of the Revolutionary War. Don’t miss the great multi-media presentation about the beginning of the war at the ranger station at Minuteman National Historic Park. (You can also stop at Wilson Farms just off Rte. 4 -- see “Shopping - Farmer’s Markets.”)

www.frommers.com/destinations/lexingtonma

Maine - (Ogunquit, Kennebunkport and Kittery) One hour north of Boston. Kittery is a shopper’s paradise with tons of outlets and shops to choose from. For info, see www.thekitteryoutlets.com

To experience Maine at its best, though, drive north along scenic Route 1 to Ogunquit, best known for its beach and cliff walk, and then to Kennebunkport, summer home to the Bush family and a quaint waterfront town full of restaurants, shops, and beaches. Don’t forget to stop off at a local restaurant for some Maine lobster. The ‘Lobster Pound’ in Ogunquit is a popular choice for a casual lobster dinner.

Marblehead, MA -- 20 miles north of Boston -- A beautiful yacht and mansion town with a great park on the beach, too. A Christmas walk through the streets of old Marblehead is a must for an authentic New England Christmas. Call the Marblehead Chamber of Commerce at 781-621-2868 for more information.

www.marbleheadchamber.org

Newport, Rhode Island - An hour and a half outside of Boston, this city is full of shopping, beautiful beaches, the mansions on Bellevue Avenue and Ocean Drive, the Cliff Walk -- a 3 mile coastal path that travels behind several estates and much more. For information, see http://www.newportri.com/

Old Sturbridge Village, MA -- About one hour west of Boston. People are dressed in the costume of the 1830s and go about their business in character. www.osv.org
Plymouth, MA - 45 miles south of Boston, Plymouth Plantation and the Mayflower are located here. Plymouth Rock, the landing place of the Mayflower is smaller than you would imagine, but a must see. While you’re there, make a quick trip to the Cranberry World Visitors Center, 225 Water St., Plymouth (508-747-2350).

Quincy, MA -- 14 miles south of Boston, Quincy is great for John Adams fans or anyone who is interested in the American Revolution. For info, see www.quincyonline.com

Salem, MA - 25 miles north of Boston. Learn about the history of the Salem witch trials. Visit the House of Seven Gables of Nathaniel Hawthorne fame. Things are especially fun around Halloween (but the day of Halloween is not ideal for children -- can get a bit scary with festivities centered around adults). For info, see www.frommers.com/destinations/salemma/

Sharon, VT - 135 miles NW of Boston, this can be a fun trip for LDS families or those curious about LDS history, for it is where Joseph Smith, the first prophet of the LDS Church, was born. Excellent facilities there, Information Center, and fun places for families. For info, see www.sharonvt.org

GETTING AWAY FROM IT ALL

Weekend escape secrets, tried and tested! Proven to relieve you of stress Check out web.mit.edu/mitac for any updated information.

Nantucket and Martha’s Vineyard
These two islands off the coast of Cape Cod are wonderful weekend getaway year round. Its possible to do both in the same weekend but experts recommend doing them one at a time. They are both accessible by ferry from Hyannis, MA and Woods Hole -- see schedules online and island information at www.islandferry.com

What to do: Once on the islands, rent a bike or a car and explore the many beaches, town centers and sights. Both islands are unique and offer different diversions and attractions.

Where to stay: Stay at one of the many bed and breakfasts or rent a cottage with a group of friends through one of the many rental agencies. Check out fodors.com for recommendations. Don’t forget to stop at the Chamber of Commerce located near the ferry dock and get maps and brochures (free).

Acadia National Park
Located in Bar Harbor in northern Maine, Acadia is approximately 6 hours north of Boston. It encompasses 47,633 acres of granite-domed mountains, woodlands, lakes and ponds, and ocean shoreline ideal for walking, hiking and biking. www.nps.gov/acad

What to do: By automobile you can drive the 27-mile Park Loop Road which includes views of some of the most dramatic scenery along the eastern seaboard. Other summer activities include fishing, boating, carriage rides, and wildlife viewing. During the winter, the carriage roads and the closed portions of the Park Loop Road are ideal for cross-country skiing and snowshoeing.

Where to stay: If you are the adventurous type, check out one of the many campgrounds available nearby listed on the website. For those of you seeking a quaint B&B or inn, check out accommodations in nearby Bar Harbor center at fodors.com.

New York City
This city is a wonderful weekend getaway no matter what season. With wonderful restaurants, shopping and hotels, you can’t go wrong! You can sometimes find great round trip airfare, but it’s also recommended taking the Amtrak train from Boston’s South Station. You really don’t need a car in NYC and parking can be very expensive (and difficult to find). For more info, see http://www.nycvisit.com/home/index.cfm

About once a year, MIT Spouses and Partners or MITAC usually offers a great deal for a NYC bus trip -- starting early in the morning and getting home again that very night. Check out the website: web.mit.edu/mitac mit.edu/medical/spousesandpartners for any further information.

What to do: Take in a Broadway show, stroll through Central Park, shop on 5th Ave., and visit one of the many museums. Take a circle line boat tour around Manhattan island or enjoy a day of shopping along the streets of Soho.

Where to Stay: A few favorite and convenient hotels are the Doubletree Times Square, The Marriott Times Square, The Westin Essex House on Central Park, and the St. Regis on Fifth Avenue.

Theatre Tip from the Pros: You can get half price tickets to Broadway shows at the TKTS booth in Times Square on the day of the show. Tickets are $37.50 and you must pay in cash. Shows available vary, but are posted at 2 pm on a large screen outside the booth. The booth opens at 3 pm so get in line early. Otherwise, for advance ticket purchases, see ticketmaster.com. Playbill.com lists all Broadway and Off-Broadway shows currently running with a brief description.

Quebec City/Montreal
This romantic, French-speaking city in Canada is a great weekend getaway. The cobble-stoned streets and sidewalk cafes are reminiscent of Europe. Approximately 7 hours by car or you can fly into Montreal and rent a car to reach Quebec City. Montreal is another beautiful city and could be done in conjunction with Quebec City. Visit www.quebecregion.com for more information.

What to do: Don’t miss the Notre Dame Basilica, Chateau Frontenac, a horse-drawn carriage ride, a stroll along the Terrasse Dufferin to the Citadelle to see the impressive changing of the guards ceremony. Don’t forget the exchange rate is in our favor.

Where to stay: There are many fine hotels and restaurants to choose from and lots of boutiques and shops.

Lake Placid:
Located in the northeastern portion of the Adirondack wilderness of New York State, approximately 5 hours from Boston, the Lake Placid region is a popular year-round resort. The Olympic facilities used for the 1932 and 1980 Olympic Winter Games. For info, see http://www.lakeplacid.com/

What to do: Don’t miss the bobsled run, a Gondola ride on Whiteface mountain, aerial displays year round, Santa’s workshop, Highfalls Gorge and a biathalon course.

Where to stay: A wide range of accommodations are available. A few favorites are the Mirror Lake Inn, The Hilton Resort, and the Hyatt on Mirror Lake.

Where to eat: For a great casual BBQ lunch, try Tail-O’-The-Pub, a five-minute drive from the lake, but well worth it. For dinner, try Great Adirondack Steak and Seafood - a great atmosphere.

CAMPING IDEAS:
